

MAKAHA VALLEY TOWERS

RESIDENTS' HANDBOOK

Effective 26 Feb 2007

Last revised on November 30, 2023

Welcome to MVT

Aloha! Welcome to Makaha Valley Towers. You have chosen to live in one of the most beautiful condominiums on the island of Oahu. Our house rules are meant to make daily living at the Towers more enjoyable for all of us. With the large number of people living in a relatively small amount of space, adherence to the rules will help preserve the safety, aesthetics and ambience of our community.

Our rules apply to all owners, their families, tenants, employees and any other persons using Association facilities on their behalf, and will be enforced by management under the direction of the Board of Directors. Residents are responsible for the conduct of their guests and visitors while on the premises. Complaints and reports of violations should be directed to the General Manager or Security. Owners' suggestions for changes to the rules, or complaints concerning their enforcement should be addressed to the Board.

Owners and agents are required to have all tenants and guests register with the Manager's Office prior to occupying an apartment, furnish their tenants and guests with a copy of the current house rules, and be responsible for their tenants' and guests' compliance with the rules.

This handbook contains an introduction to condominium living and MVT history, our house rules, Board of Director policies explicitly referenced within the house rules, and other information you may find useful as you live and work together with all of us who call MVT home

The revised and recodified House Rules and Board Policies in this Handbook were approved 26 JAN 2007. Effective
Date of implementation and enforcement: 26 FEB 2007.

Living and Working Together

Condominiums were developed for that group of people who want to be homeowners with a minimum of work. They exclusively own the inside of their apartment and communally own all other parts, the rest of the buildings, grounds and amenities.

When people decide to live in a condominium they find many benefits over house ownership. All areas outside their unit are maintained for them – no lawn mowing, shrub trimming or pool cleaning. The exteriors of the buildings are completely maintained. But along with the benefits come some responsibilities, most especially when dealing with the communally owned “common areas.”

All owners have shared interests in the common areas and are restricted from unreasonably intruding into the rights of each other in those areas. An owner may have to give up some individual wants and desires so as not to cause such an intrusion. This restriction from intruding on the shared rights of others, which each owner agrees to abide by, is the underlying basis for what are known as “covenants” within our governing documents. Anyone not willing to accept and abide by them should reject this type of living arrangement. Covenants are designed to help maintain the quality of life and value of the property. All owners have actual or constructive notice of these covenants upon purchase of their apartments; and are responsible for informing and enforcing the covenants with their tenants, guests and visitors, and any other person using the Association facilities on their behalf.

Our house rules comport with and are authorized by the covenants reasonably arising from or explicitly stated in the Declaration and By-Laws of Makaha Valley Towers Association of Apartment Owners. Please be familiar with and follow the rules and do not interfere with the rights of your fellow owners and residents. Mahalo!

Makaha Valley Towers History

The Makaha Valley Towers condominium complex was officially completed in February 1971. The two multi-storied reinforced concrete apartment wings, containing 586 condominium apartments, sit on fourteen acres at the foot of Makaha Valley along the palisades that rise to the Waianae mountain range. The buildings are oriented to the southwest based upon the contour of the land to take advantage of the trade winds and the sun, with vistas of ocean, mountain and sunsets. From each apartment you can look out across Makaha Valley with its two 18-hole golf courses, forest reserves and the ancient heiau of Kaneaki.

The Makaha Valley rises from the world-famous Makaha surfing beach to mist shrouded mountains, ending at the summit of Mt. Kaala, the highest point on the island of Oahu. Bishop Museum archeologists and historians have unearthed tools, charcoal and artifacts showing that Makaha Valley probably was inhabited by large groups of Hawaiians. The carbon analysis of charcoal found in the habitation sites in the valley indicate such habitation possibly occurred more than 500 years before Captain Cook arrived in the waters of Hawaii.

Elevators. In the event that an elevator becomes inoperative and the door will not open, you can communicate with Security by pushing the “Emergency Push to Call” button. When the security officer responds, state your situation. If the elevator stops between floors with the door open, do not attempt to leave or enter the elevator. Assistance will be provided as quickly as possible. If you know that an elevator is improperly stopped on a particular floor, please notify Security.

Fire Alarm Boxes. Alarm boxes are located in the elevator lobby on each floor. All residents should be familiar with the location of the station nearest their apartment. Anyone who tampers with the fire alarm system for no good cause are subject to prosecution.

Security. A security officer is available 24 hours a day at the main entrance to the Makaha Valley Towers complex. Security officers patrol the premises and are empowered to enforce the rules of the Association, but are not authorized to involve themselves in private matters. If an emergency occurs, call 911. If Security assistance is needed, call the security officer at 695-9112. In an emergency situation, always call the appropriate agency (ambulance, fire, police) directly at 911. In an emergency situation that could adversely affect the operation of the Association facilities (flooding or fire, e.g.), Security should also be notified as soon as possible.

Service of A/C and Non-common Elements. Air conditioning (AC) components within individual apartments are “common elements,” along with the rest of the AC system. See Board Policy 3-02 for important requirements relating to the in-apartment components of this system.

An apartment may occasionally have a problem with something related to a non-common element, a leaking commode, e.g., that requires a call to MVT maintenance. See Board Policy 3-09 for information about service call charges.

See House Rule Definitions 8, and 16.

Revised 2017 March 24

The zoning laws that govern Makaha Valley Towers prohibit the rental of condominium apartments for less than 30 consecutive days (hereinafter in this rule, rentals for less than 30 consecutive days are referred to as “transient vacation rentals”). The City Council of the City and County of Honolulu, State of Hawaii (“City Council”), has recognized that neighborhoods may be negatively impacted by the presence of transient vacation rentals, noting that such rentals have resulted in escalating property values, increased noise, illegal parking, and increased traffic. The City Council has recognized a concern that homes are being purchased as income-producing investments rather than for domiciliary purposes and that significant numbers of absentee owners and constant change in occupancy may change the social patterns of neighborhoods and reduce interactions among neighbors, resulting in a decline in the quality of life for residents.

Over the years, the Association has received numerous complaints from owners and residents regarding noises and disturbances arising from transient vacation rentals. In an effort to protect and preserve the peaceful enjoyment of the apartments in the Makaha Valley Towers condominium project, the Association shall assist the City and County of Honolulu, Department of Planning and Permitting (“DPP”) in its enforcement of the ordinance against those persons who are renting their apartments for periods of less than 30 consecutive days or otherwise renting, advertising, or offering to rent their apartments in violation of the LUO provisions related to transient vacation rental units. In this regard, the Association shall provide to DPP such information and documentation that the Association deems appropriate regarding known or suspected transient vacation rentals at the condominium project.

Owners who rent their apartments shall complete an Owner’s Registration and Authorization Form and such other forms as the Association may require from time to time and submit the form to the General Manager’s office prior to the occupancy of an apartment. All tenant and non-owner occupants shall also be required to complete an Occupant’s Registration Form and submit the form to the General Manager’s office prior to the occupancy of an apartment. In the event that the Association obtains information that causes or leads it to believe that an apartment may be, is being, or has been, rented for a period of less than 30 consecutive days, the Association may, in its sole discretion, provide to DPP, the Owner’s Registration and Authorization Forms and Occupant’s Registration Forms and such other information related to the rental or use of the apartment as the Association deems appropriate. The Association shall cooperate with DPP in response to any request for information or documentation or any subpoena issued to the Association seeking records regarding the rental or use of apartments.

It is important for owners to recognize that advertising or renting an apartment for less than 30 consecutive days may expose the owners to substantial fines imposed by the City and County of Honolulu. In addition, the use of apartments as transient accommodations as defined in tax laws - which are different from zoning laws - will subject the apartment to a much higher real property tax rate. The Association strongly recommends that owners who are renting or allowing persons to use or occupy their apartments for periods of less than 30 consecutive days consult with their respective attorneys and tax advisors to ensure that they are in compliance with the law. The Association cannot render legal or tax advice to owners.

All owners who rent, or advertise or offer to rent, their apartments for periods of less than 30 consecutive days do so at their own risk and with full knowledge that the Association intends to assist the DPP in the enforcement of the LUO against them by providing to DPP such information and documentation as the Association deems appropriate related the owner’s apartment and the rental, use, or occupancy of the apartment.

Revised 16 July 2021

- 1.02 Treatment of Employees. Employees of the Association, whether directly hired by the Association or contracted personnel, shall not be subjected by an owner, tenant, guest or visitor to (a) harassment, (b) interference with official duties, (c) threatening, and/or (d) assaulting See Definitions 9,11; BP 5-03.

Revised 2 June 2008

- 1.03 Access to Apartments and Premises. No authorization is to be given to any prospective tenant to enter the premises unless accompanied by an authorized person such as a representative of the rental agency, the owner or a caretaker.

No parking passes or drop off passes will be issued to vehicles between the hours of midnight and 6:00 a.m. except for new check-ins, emergency situations, and newspaper deliveries. Persons with a rental vehicle will be required to produce the rental agreement for the vehicle. Any other persons wishing to enter onto the property will be required to produce proof of identification.

All walk-in visitors will be issued a "walk-in visitor's pass". The visitor's walk-in pass must be returned to the Security gate upon exiting. It will be the responsibility of the resident to ensure that the walk-in pass is returned to the Security gate.

Revised 17 August 2015

Revised 21 May 2010

- 1.04 Registration and Orientation. Any person e.g. owner, tenant, visitor, or guest who intends to remain at MVT for more than three days must register with the office. When a visitor comes to the security gate, the resident to be visited will be called on the enterphone for approval of the visit. See BP 4-08.

Property under this rule includes but is not limited to buildings, grounds, furniture, equipment, elevators, and directional markers.
- 1.13 Keeping Animals. Permitted Animals, under these rules, are not mere pets but are a class of animals the use of which are necessary to afford a person with a disability equal opportunity to use and enjoy an apartment or the project. Anyone claiming a need to keep a Permitted Animal must contact the General Manager regarding the approval process, applicable Board Policy and forms.

A. Animals Prohibited. Pets, animals or birds of any kind are not permitted in any apartment or anywhere on the MVT Project.

B. Fair Housing Act. As required by the federal Fair Housing Act and/or Chapter 515 of the Hawai'i Revised Statutes, the Association will make a "reasonable accommodation" in rules and policies for persons who are handicapped or disabled as reasonably necessary to provide an equal opportunity to use and enjoy their apartment or the Project.

The Act defines a "handicapped person" as a person having a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of such person's major life activities. Major life activities means "functions such as caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working." Section 515-2 of the Hawai'i Revised Statutes defines "disability" as "having a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities, having a record of such an impairment, or being regarded as having such an impairment. The term does not include current illegal use of or addiction to a controlled substance or alcohol or drug abuse that threatens the property or safety of others." The burden of providing evidence of a handicap or disability is on the handicapped or disabled person.

If the Association finds that a resident is handicapped or disabled and that a Permitted Animal is reasonably necessary to afford the resident with an equal opportunity to use and enjoy his or her apartment or the project, the Association may allow the resident to keep a Permitted Animal in his/her apartment. Thus visually impaired persons may keep guide dogs, hearing impaired persons may keep signal dogs, physically or mentally impaired persons may keep animals specifically trained to provide a necessary service for the handicapped person in their apartments, and other handicapped or disabled residents may keep other animals as reasonably necessary to enjoy the Project.

C. Nuisance. The Permitted Animals described above shall be permitted at the complex, provided they are on a leash while using any common elements. Any Permitted Animal shall be permanently and promptly removed if, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, it is causing a threat to safety, a nuisance or an unreasonable disturbance to other residents.

D. Use at the Project. Permitted Animals are not allowed in a public swimming pool area except for Permitted Animals that qualify under subpart B and are reasonably necessary for the resident's use of the pool. Permitted Animals shall not (a) cause or threaten to cause personal injury or property damage; (b) make excessive noise; (c) defecate and/or urinate on walls or floors of common elements and/or common element landscaping, except when using the Assistance Animal Relief Area; or (d) exhibit any aggressive or vicious behavior. Revised 21 July 2023

E. Guests at the Project. These same rules apply to all residents of the Project including guests. The guest must be handicapped or disabled as defined in the Act or Chapter 515 of the Hawai'i Revised Statutes, the accommodation must be reasonably necessary to provide the guest with an equal opportunity to use and enjoy the subject apartment and common elements.

F. Visitors at the Project. In the event a handicapped or disabled visitor requires use of an animal at the project, the visitor or resident with whom the visitor will visit, shall notify the General Manager and the General Manager shall communicate with the resident or visitor. Revised 13 December 2013

- 1.14 Feeding of Birds or Other Animals. Other than service animals, which must be fed only within approved animal owners' apartments, and except for authorized participants working in the feral cat control program, no one is to feed any birds or other animals anywhere within the MVT premises. See Definition 06.

(b) It will not be operated with anyone seated in such area unless (1) no seating is available in the vehicle cab, (2) the vehicle side racks are securely attached and the tailboard or gate securely closed, and (3) anyone in such area is seated on the floor and not attempting to control unlash cargo. (c) It will not be operated with anyone no more than twelve years old in such area unless (1) a life-threatening emergency exists with respect to that passenger, or (2) the vehicle is on its way to be part of an event that lawfully permits the passenger to occupy such area.

4.13 Vehicle Noise. No one operating or in physical control of a vehicle on the property shall permit the vehicle to emit or project any noise or sounds that are unreasonably loud, to the extent that the rightful enjoyment and comfort of anyone on the property is unreasonably disturbed. Such sounds include but are not necessarily limited to those caused by improperly-or non-muffled exhaust on motor vehicles, unnecessary horn blowing and auto-theft alarms. The volume of audio devices must be set so that the sound does not extend beyond the vehicle.

4.14 Car Wash. The car wash is for the exclusive use of residents and guests. Vehicles with visitor parking passes shall not use the car wash facilities. Operating hours are posted at the car wash. Water is to be turned off when not in use. Waxing is not allowed in the car wash area. The playing of vehicle audio devices in the car wash area is not permitted.

The car wash area is not to be used for washing cooking pots or pans, or for washing vehicle engines. Cleaning vehicle engines using a degreasing product is not permitted anywhere on the property.

The electrical outlets in the car wash area are for vehicle vacuuming only, and are not to be used for charging vehicle, power tools or other batteries.

4.15 Motorcycle Wash. Motorcycles, mopeds and bicycles may be washed only in the motorcycle wash area. The provisions of HR 4.14 shall also apply to the motorcycle wash area.

4.16 Barricade. When the outer entrance or exit is barricaded to allow all vehicles entering into MVT to be checked by security, only security personnel are authorized to remove the barricade to allow any vehicle to gain access into MVT.

Revised 2 June 2008

4.17 Unsafe vehicle loads. No vehicle with the exception of a contractor's vehicle will be allowed on the property with loads extending beyond the front and rear bumper of the vehicle. Contractors whose loads are for work purposes must be flagged with a red flag to show caution to motorists and pedestrians. Any vehicle found to have an unsafe load will be subject to removal at the owner's expense. The vehicle and or load will not be allowed to remain on Makaha Valley Towers property.

If the person has not been responsible for a same-type violation within the past year, no monetary penalty will be assessed against the person.

If the person has been responsible for a same-type violation (making the current violation the second such violation) within the past year, a citation will be issued assessing a penalty of $50.00 against the person.

Any subsequent same-type violation by the person within a year will result in another citation and additional penalty of $50.00 more than the previous citation. If a tenant, guest or visitor owing a fine does not pay by the due date, the owner of the applicable apartment will be billed for payment.
- 6.04 Appeal. A person who has been issued a violation notice or citation or has been assessed a penalty under this section may appeal to the BOD with a request to rescind, dismiss, cancel or modify such a notice, citation or penalty. Owners may be held responsible for any costs and fees arising from their conduct or that of their families, tenants, guests, visitors, contractors or workmen.

MVT Residents' Handbook

Part III – Pertinent Board Policies

3-01 ENTRYWAY FLOOR COVERING

Apartment entryways are limited common elements the condition of which affects the appearance and value of MVT. While the entryways are in many ways very personal, the Board is responsible for maintaining the condition and value of the property. This policy establishes some minimum expectations for maintenance of entryway appearance.

Entryway floors must either be solidly painted or covered with exterior grade tile. Prior to installation of any permanent tile covering, an entryway must be inspected by management for any spalling, cracks or other damage to the concrete. If concrete damage is evident, repairs must be made by the Association prior to installation.

Floor covering must be maintained in good condition. All tile and mortar joints should be coated with a water repellent material and this process be repeated every two years. The owner is responsible for maintenance and replacement of tile.

Owners with floor covering in poor condition will be notified in writing by the Association. If the floor covering is still in poor condition and not repaired, removed or replaced by the owner within thirty days after notification by the Association, the Association will remove the floor covering and refinish the area with walkway paint. If removal of the old floor covering is required, the owner will be billed for the cost of removal.

Owners who tile their entryway are responsible for cleaning up after the work is done. If the Association finds it necessary to refinish the walkway area due to tiling of the entryway, the owner will be billed for the cost of refinishing the walkway.

In a case where an entryway requires cleaning due to owner/resident negligence the owner/resident will be notified in writing to correct the condition within five days. If not corrected, and the Association finds it necessary to clean or refinish the walkway area, the owner/resident will be billed for the cost. In the case of a rental apartment, the rental agent will also be notified of discrepancies.

3-02 AIR CONDITIONING SYSTEM

All components of the air conditioning system, whether located within or outside of individual apartments are common elements and will be maintained and repaired by the Association as a common expense. Each owner or resident is required to provide access to his or her apartment for servicing, repair and inspection of the system.

The General Manager shall establish a schedule of preventive maintenance for the entire air conditioning system. When entry into apartments is required for other functions, the General Manager shall provide owners/residents with adequate advance notice to schedule entry within a reasonable time-frame and at reasonable hours.

Preventive maintenance requested outside the regular service period shall be chargeable at the rate of $65.00 per hour, one-hour minimum.

Revised 12 October 2012

The Board has the right to enter apartments for maintenance, repairs or emergencies. Accordingly, the General Manager and/or other authorized agent shall be allowed to enter any apartment for the purpose of maintenance and system checks, or performing emergency repairs to avoid or abate damage to common elements or other apartments. Entry into an apartment shall be permitted for (a) routine maintenance and system checks – owners/residents will be notified in advance of scheduled maintenance, repairs, or system checks, and (b) emergency repairs – entry into an apartment for emergency inspection or repairs to avoid or abate damage to common elements or other apartments shall be made as required by the circumstances.

If an owner/resident fails to provide access to his/her respective apartment for preventive maintenance service, all subsequent repairs conducted within that apartment shall be charged to the respective owner at MVT's standard rate, one-hour minimum, in addition to the cost of material.

Owners/residents are required to promptly notify management during regular office hours, or personnel at the security gate after office hours, of any air conditioning system malfunction or any sign of condensation or leaks in the system. If an owner/resident fails to notify management or security personnel, any damages caused as a result will be billed to the owner/resident. Owners whose apartments are vacant for extended periods are also liable for the costs of repairing any damages resulting from unreported system malfunctions or leaks.

Revised 18 December 2009

Owners who rent their apartments are required to inform tenants of this policy and advise tenants that they must cooperate to assure that access to the apartment is provided as required. Owners will be responsible for any damages caused by a tenant's failure to comply.

3-06 LANAI FLOOR COVERING

Lanai floors must either be painted a solid color, with no paint going onto the edging, or covered with an exterior grade tile. After being notified of a violation, the owner will have 90 days to comply.

Revised 23 March 2012

Prior to installation of tile, the lanai must be inspected by management for any spalling, cracks or other damage to the concrete. If any damage is observed, repairs must be made by the Association before installation of the tile.

The lanai floor covering must be maintained in good condition. All tile and mortar joints shall be coated with a water repellant material. The owner is responsible for maintenance and replacement of tile.

3-07 SMOKE ALARMS

If a “sounding-off” smoke alarm in an apartment is determined more likely than not to be defective (complaining neighbors report that the alarm has been beeping for a considerable amount of time and no smoke, flames or excessive heat on the entry doorway or nearby windows can be observed), and no one can be contacted at the apartment, the General Manager or a specifically designated employee may enter the apartment to check on the situation if the owner has previously entrusted a key to MVT management to be retained in accordance with BP 4-04.

The General Manager or the designated employee shall then promptly proceed to determine if any visible signs of a fire exist; and if so, the fire cannot be readily extinguished, shall immediately call the fire department via 911. If no such signs exist, the smoke alarm battery shall be checked by replacing the battery with one that is known to be functional. If no beeping then occurs, the bad battery will be retained and the good one left in the alarm. The General Manager or designated employee shall then vacate and lockup the apartment, leaving it as it was, except that the smoke alarm will have a new battery. The owner of the defective smoke alarm will be billed in accordance with the standard rate for non-common element service calls, with no charge for the battery.

Revised 18 December 2009

If the above situation of a beeping smoke alarm occurs in an apartment, and (a) the owner or occupant or a representative of the owner or occupant cannot be contacted, and (b) the owner has not entrusted a key to be retained by MVT management, the fire department shall be called to determine an appropriate course of action.

3-08 DAMAGES AND INSURANCE

This policy establishes the responsibility for payment of “insurance deductible” by apartment owners in certain circumstances.

The Association, as a common expense, provides for two basic types of insurance coverage. One covers property losses and the other covers liability of the Association for such events as water leaks and injuries suffered while on MVT property. Both policies have a deductible amount per claim.

Property or liability damages, or other claims, can result from malfunction of personally owned fixtures or appliances within an apartment or from abuse or negligence by resident, guest or visitor.

Where damage to common elements or other apartments is caused by the failure of a privately-owned fixture, appliance, hose, etc. not a common element of the Association, the responsible apartment owner is liable for payment to the Association for any expenses incurred which are below the deductible level of the Association’s insurance coverage, or for the actual monetary amount of the damage, whichever is less.

The Board, in the case of a claim for damage to a unit or the common elements, may:

- (1) Pay the deductible amount as a common expense;
- (2) After notice and an opportunity for a hearing, assess the deductible amount against the owners who caused the damage or from whose units the damage or cause of loss originated; or
- (3) Require the unit owners of the units affected to pay the deductible amount.

Revised 31 March 2011

3-09 NON-COMMON ELEMENT SERVICE

This policy establishes an hourly rate for all non-common element service calls.

Service charges are: (a) Monday through Friday 8:00 am to 4:00 pm, $65.00 per hour, one hour minimum; except for drainage lines, if unable to clear blockage due to obstruction within resident's lines, first hour charged at $65.00 per hour and subsequent hours $32.50 per hour. (b) Over-time charges after 4:00 pm, Monday through Friday, and weekends and holidays, $130.00 per hour, 1-hour minimum, except for drainage lines, if unable to clear blockage due to obstruction within resident's lines, first hour charged at $130.00 per hour and subsequent hours $65.00 per hour.

Revised 12 October 2012

Non-common element staff service calls include but are not limited to: (a) water leaks, (b) electrical outages, and (c) water running.

3-12 DISPLAY OF AMERICAN FLAG DELETED

3-13 POLICY ON ILLEGAL SUBSTANCE/ACTIVITIES

WHEREAS, the U.S. Supreme Court in Gonzales v. Raich (previously Ashcroft v. Raich), 545 U.S. 1 (2005), decided that under the Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution, the United States Congress may criminalize the production and use of home-grown cannabis even where states approve its use for medicinal purposes.

WHEREAS, marijuana plants are illegal Schedule I drugs under the federal Controlled Substances Act (CSA). CSA is Title II of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970.

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors has received complaints from its occupants with regard to the smoke from the marijuana; and

WHEREAS, the prior policy of allowing strictly legal use under state laws has proven to be an unreasonable burden on the staff to attempt to administer (to ensure that the practice continues to be legal under state laws, etc.) in that certain persons have failed to comply with the Project and the State requirements;

NOW THEREFORE, based on the statements in the CSA, the Supreme Court decision, the HUD policy on federal housing as well as impairment of the right of others to use the Project and unreasonable administrative burden, the Board of Directors does not believe that it is a “reasonable accommodation” under either the state or the federal fair housing act to allow medicinal use of marijuana at the Project. This is especially true at Makaha Valley Towers where (1) complaints have been received by neighbors about the adverse effect of smoking marijuana since the Board first allowed it (pursuant to advice from one state official); and (2) whereas the policy has proven to be an unreasonable administrative burden to staff because many if not most of the accommodated individuals have not made the requisite effort to provide the staff of the Makaha Valley Towers with the up to date and mandatory information from the state. One user recently provided the staff with information that he was and would be out of compliance with state laws for at least a month. The Board of Directors cannot knowingly allow illegal activity under both state and federal laws to continue at the Project inside of apartments or elsewhere on the Project. And, a significant number of those occupants who have applied for the accommodation have not been willing to take even the minimal and timely steps under the state law to comply. Moreover, the reaction of the neighbors who have the right to use and enjoy their apartments has to be considered by the Board in determining what is “reasonable”.

Thus, the Board will no longer allow any occupant, even those with permission of the state of Hawaii for medicinal purposes, to use marijuana, to possess marijuana, or to grow marijuana plants in their apartments as to do so is a violation of federal criminal law (CSA), creates impairment to the use and enjoyment of the Project by the neighbors and has proven unreasonably difficult or impossible to administer.

Those occupants who have, as of this date, provided the Board with the requisite information to prove they are compliant with the state law (as required by the former policy which is withdrawn effective today) will be given a reasonable time (not to exceed 60 days) to relocate if they choose to do so. Those occupants who have not provided the Association with the requisite information to prove they are compliant with the state law must immediately cease and desist growing marijuana plants, using marijuana or possessing marijuana at the Project including inside of their apartments upon notice of the change in policy.

Adopted 18 May 2012

4-05 SECONDARY AND THIRD VEHICLE PARKING

This policy establishes fees for owners or resident tenants parking more than one vehicle within the MVT premises; and also applies to a resident tenant who wants to park a vehicle on the premises, but for which the apartment owner has not assigned the primary parking permit.

In order to obtain a secondary parking permit for a particular vehicle, the vehicle owner(s) must submit pertinent ownership and insurance documentation for the vehicle to the General Manager. The owner(s) shall also agree that if a shortage of parking spaces occurs for vehicles with primary parking permits, a secondary parking permit for the vehicle may be revoked upon thirty days, or shorter if necessary, written notice. See Form E. Upon payment of the below fees as applicable, the General Manager shall then issue a permit to park the vehicle in one of the designated parking spaces.

Whenever a secondary parking permit is issued, a refundable deposit of $100.00 shall be charged. When the permit expires or is revoked, the vehicle owner(s) shall return the permit, at which time the deposit for same will be refunded. If the vehicle is found on the MVT premises with an expired permit, or beyond a properly notified removal period, the vehicle may be removed from the premises and the deposit forfeited.

Revised 30 November 2023

In addition to the refundable deposit, the following nonrefundable parking charges for vans, cars, and truck charges apply: daily parking less than 30 days is $15.00 per day. Monthly parking $85.00 per month for cars, vans, and trucks; and $35.00 per month for motorcycles; and a $15.00 nonrefundable fee for bicycles. Two bicycles maximum per apartment. Reasonable exceptions to the nonrefundability of the parking charges may be allowed under certain circumstances e.g. if the vehicle is sold. Revised 30 November 2023

4-09 SURFBOARD RACK SPACE

Surfboard Rack Spaces are rented “as-is.” A rented surfboard board space reverts back to the Association upon nonrenewal of a lease or upon the lessee no longer being an owner.

The rental term for a rack space shall be for one year, with the fee to be determined by the Board. The fee shall be payable in advance.

The assignment of a space is on a first-come first-served basis, and will be rented to owners only. An owner is only allowed one space, no matter how many apartments one owner may own. Owners do not have the right to allow anyone else to use the Surfboard Rack.

Owners who are on the waiting list for a space shall not obtain a space if their unit’s account is delinquent. Owners who already have a space and becomes delinquent or is already delinquent shall be made to give up their space and/or their lease shall not be renewed.

Adopted 30 November 2023

5-03 HARASSMENT AND INTERFERENCE

The Association's employees should be treated with dignity, respect and courtesy. The Association does not tolerate harassment or interference with the employees as they go about the performance of their duties. If an employee appears to be derelict in his or her duties, the appropriate procedure is not to confront the employee but rather to inform the General Manager or if necessary the Board president.

Employees shall not be subjected to harassment or interference with official duties by an owner, tenant, guest, or visitor. Security personnel working on behalf of the Association within the MVT premises and charged with enforcing Association policies and rules, whether or not employed and paid by an entity other than the Association, are deemed to be employees for purposes of this policy.

Harassment as used here means any physical abuse or assault or the threat of such assault with the apparent intent and means to carry out the threat. When any such act of harassment occurs, the police will promptly be called. Regardless of what action the police may take, MVT security will issue a violation notice. The Association's attorney will then send a letter to the offender with a notice that any such future conduct may result in the Association pursuing legal remedies that could include eviction from the MVT premises.

Interference with official duties means any conduct that unreasonably detracts or obstructs an employee in the proper performance of his or her duties. This includes stalking or following an employee in a threatening manner, verbally abusing an employee with derogatory language, or any conduct or verbiage that unreasonably impedes, inhibits, obstructs or interferes with an employee's ability to properly perform the employee's assigned duties. When any act constituting interference with official duties occurs, a violation notice will be issued. The Association's attorney may then send a letter to the offender with a notice to refrain from such conduct or the Association may pursue legal remedies to alleviate the problem.
